This is the result of the death of the former

Put yourself in their place!

VOU may think you read about other people when you read fic-Y tion but really important, really great writers simply hold the mirror up to nature. They show you the man or woman you are that you think you are that you'd like to be or that you're glad you are not. Look through these little glimpses of Cosmopolitan stories; then get the December number and - put yourself in the place of these people.

Do you love power more than honor?

Of course you don't. But put yourself in the place of the man who could, by forfeiting honor, have founded a kingdom, gained the love of the most beautiful woman in Kashmir and lived happily thereafter "forgetful of the world and by the world forgot." This is the theme of the vibrant, colorful story by William Ashley Anderson in December Cosmopolitan,

After the ceremony?

Alone at last in a rural retreat he left his young bride for a moment. Then the other woman appeared on the scene with a diabolical scheme worthy of a woman scorned. She met the bride, told her everything and then the scene between husband and wife and the other woman. Bride husband other woman; if you were either of the three, how would you have handled the situation? The story is by Albert Payson Terhune and it's in December Cosmopolitan.

Would you have been afraid?

Where? Oh anywhere there's anything to be afraid of. Probably you would, and you wouldn't know why. That's for science to find out and explain to you. Science has found it and in "Fear Devils" Harvey O'Higgins tells you all about it. He also tells how anger causes hay fever and a lot of other interesting and important things that may cause you to change your ways of thinking. Read his remarkable article in December Cosmopolitan.

Anetta the Third was not a queen

Queens don't work in shoe shops and yearn to be cabaret dincers. In fact, Anotta was of extremely lowly parentage, but she was pretty and willful as girls sometimes are so she became a dancer. Then later, she had to make a decision of some moment she made it but what would you have done in her place? Interesting speculation will follow a reading of Ida M. Evans story in December Cosmopolitan.
